

JENKINS SCORED BY ROOSEVELT

Governor of Oklahoma Is Removed From Office.

MADE MONEY OUT OF POSITION

SUCCESSOR IS THOMAS B. FERGUSON, A NEWSPAPER MAN.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The president today appointed Thomas B. Ferguson, governor of Oklahoma, vice William M. Jenkins, removed. In taking this action the president attached to the papers the following memorandum:

"Governor Jenkins of Oklahoma is hereby removed because of his improper connection with a contract between the territory and the Oklahoma Land and Cattle company. The decision is based wholly upon his own written statements and his oral explanations of them at the hearing.

"One of the duties of the territorial governor is to enter into the contract with some person or corporation for the keeping of the insane of the territory. Governor Jenkins made such a contract with the Oklahoma Land and Cattle company, a corporation, the promoters of which reserved $10,000 of its stock for the governor and subject to his orders.

"In the governor's explanation of the affairs he says he told the promoters at the time they desired him to sanction the contract that it was an important contract, that I had some friends who I would like to have interested in the company to which I owed some obligations which I would not be able to pay by an appointment or anything of that kind. The stock was delivered to a banker subject to the governor's order, and was turned over to these friends whose political services the governor had also sought to reward.

"The extent of the favor to the governor and his friends is suggested by the fact that the only known sale of the stock since the contract was given out was at double the price paid for it.

"Patients the Sufferers.

"As performance of the contract was to be the sole business of the company, it is obvious either the territory was obligated to pay far more than the service was worth, or that its helpless wards were to have the enormous profits contemplated taken out of their keep.

"The governor's confessed relations in the matter display such a lack of appreciation of the high judicial nature of the duties of his office as to unfit him for their further discharge.

"A sound rule of public policy and morals forbids a particular servant from seeking or accepting any personal benefit in a transaction wherein he has a public duty to perform.

"A chancellor would not for a moment retain a trustee who, in dealing for the trust, reserved an advantage to himself. The thought is not to be tolerated that the president should be vigilant and exacting in the public interest, and that the same president should permit a chancellor to retain a trustee who, in dealing for the trust, reserved an advantage to himself.

"Theodore Roosevelt.

Thomas Ferguson of Watonga, Okla., went to Oklahoma in 1899 and settled at Watonga, where the Cheyenne country in which it was located, was opened for settlement in 1891. He has published a newspaper there continuously since. He was recently appointed postmaster at Watonga. He is about 40 years of age, was educated in Kansas and left college as a minister in the Christian church. For four years he has been secretary of the territorial committee.

ELKS' MEMORIAL DAY.

Exercises in Honor of Departed Members at Theatre This Evening.

This will be a particularly sad day for the members of Salt Lake lodge of Elks, for not only will the last rites over the late Dr. McKenna be performed in the afternoon, but the brothers and their friends will assemble in the Grand theatre in the evening to commemorate the life and works of departed members. The first Sunday in December of each year is set apart by every lodge of Elks as a memorial day, but in no city throughout the land will the present would not be so sorrowful than those which Salt Lake lodge will have tonight.

The order of exercises will be as follows:

Overture, "William Tell"—Held's band, forty pieces.

Opening Ceremonies—By the lodge.

Prayer—By chaplain, Rev. P. S. Thacher.

Solo, "Come, Jesus, Redeemer"—J. A. Graham.

Intermezzo, "Cavalleria Rusticana"—Band.

Eulogy—Judge O. W. Powers.

"Oh, Holy Stillness"—Ladies' double quartette.

Solo, "The Light of the World"—Henry Miles.

Address, "Our Organization"—James C. Leary.

Selection, "Il Trovatore"—Band.

Closing Ceremonies—By the lodge.

"Nearer, My God, to Thee"—By the entire audience.

Benediction—Chaplain Thacher.

The memorial tablet of the Elks' lodge contains the names of the following departed brothers:

W. W. Miles, Frank H. Peters, E. J. Pratt, Dr. J. W. Smith, Lester Walch, W. A. Watkins, Dr. K. A. Kjos, Dr. P. J. McKenna.

The Salt Lake Medical society met at the rooms of Secretary Stewart yesterday afternoon and passed a resolution offering condolence to the widow of the late Dr. P. J. McKenna. The secretary was instructed to secure a floral wreath to be placed on the bier of the deceased fellow member.

A YOUNG HYPNOTIST.

Interesting Feats Performed by J. S. Barker.

A unique entertainment was given at the Marionette last evening by J. S. Barker, a Salt Lake boy living at 118 East Third South street, who gave an exhibition of hypnotism. Selecting a number of subjects, he surprised his audience by transforming them to street corner fakirs, circus "barkers," song and dance artists and other unique characters. Tests were tried in hypnosis and telepathy. The boys among the spectators by preparing to thrust their hands through the flesh of subjects, but this the women present would not permit. One subject was made perfectly rigid. One subject was placed with his head on the back of one chair, his feet being supported by another, and three men then knelt upon his body.

Young Barker is an employee of a downtown hotel. He makes no effort to explain his knowledge of the mysterious science. He is making use of it as a source of amusement at numerous social gatherings.

Another Salt Lake Girl Scores Success on Stage

Miss Edith Lindsay, daughter of John S. Lindsay, the well known Shakespearean reader and actor, has just been engaged by a New York company for the roles of Ophelia and Jessica, in "Hamlet" and "The Merchant of Venice," respectively. The young woman's friends in Salt Lake will be pleased to hear of her rapid advancement since leaving Salt Lake. She received most of her schooling under her father, whose talent she has inherited to a marked degree. Miss Lindsay has been playing a role in "Miss Hobbs" in the new productions she will be under the same management as before.

CONSCIENCE-STRICKEN THIEF RETURNS RING FROM NEW ZEALAND

A. Fred Wey, proprietor of the Wey hotel, suddenly and unexpectedly found himself yesterday the custodian of a conscience fund. A ring stolen at the hotel, no one knows precisely when, was returned to him from far off New Zealand, with a letter explaining the penitence of the taker. The letter was in a woman's writing and was as follows:

"To the Proprietor, Wey Hotel:

"Dear Sir—Some time ago, while passing through your hotel, I stayed at your hotel, and while there I took this ring which I enclose here. The time has come when I feel that I must return it to you, hoping it will find its rightful owner and trusting that I shall receive forgiveness. I remain yours, etc.

"A. F. WENT.

The ring is a handsome gold affair, with an imitation sapphire setting. The imitation stone is worthless, but the band is worth from $1 to $10. The hotel register contains an entry on Sept. 4 in handwriting similar to that in the letter. Beyond that fact there is no clue either as to the identity of the conscience-stricken thief or the owner of the property.

"I do not believe it was a case of technical theft, or I would have heard a complaint," said Mr. Wey last night. "Someone probably left the hotel and forgot the ring and afterwards supposed it had been lost elsewhere. The writer of this missive was probably the next occupant of the room, and, picking up the ring, carried it off.

"I had such an experience before in Butte, a fellow sent me a money order for a considerable amount due me for a board bill he had 'jumped.' I was surprised to find it was a money order, and that there was method in his madness. When he appeared on the scene, I was to start a gambling house, and I discovered he had done the conscience-stricken act for no other purpose than to create sentiment and gain the influence of my friends. With this woman, however, it is obviously a case of natural honesty asserting itself."

Writing similar to that in the letter. Beyond that fact there is no clue either as to the identity of the conscience-stricken thief or the owner of the property.

HOW BROKER RALPH GUTHRIE SOLD HIS GOLD WATCH FOR $1.50

There was a raffle on broker's row yesterday afternoon for a gold watch, whether sold or plated makes no difference—and by a pretty smooth ruse Guthrie's watch was "handed" out of the timepiece. Brokers were dropping in and shaking the ivory as their names were called and as fast as they could be rounded up, and when Guthrie's name was called, he stepped forward and took the watch. He had three chances, but he had forty-eight points to his credit. He had three chances, but he had forty-eight points to his credit. He had three chances, but he had forty-eight points to his credit.

MYTON IS HEADED OFF.

Leasing Proposition Will be Held Up Until it is Investigated.

The effort of the people of Uintah county to prevent the leasing of the mineral lands in the Indian reservation and thus defer the opening of that part of the state to settlement and mining has already been productive of success, in so far as bringing the assurance from Washington that the lease engineered by Agent Myton and his associates will not be approved before the matters involved are at least investigated. Yesterday Governor Wells, whose co-operation in the opposition had been enlisted by the Uintah county people on Friday, received advice from Senator Kearns and Representative Sutherland indicating that they are ready to act to defeat the leasing proposition.

From Senator Kearns, who was in New York, the governor received the following message yesterday in reply to the executive's telegram to him the day before:

"I leave for Washington tonight. I have wired department to hold Uintah matter until I arrive. Have all protests forwarded."

The telegram from Congressman Sutherland was as follows:

"I have already looked after mineral lease matter. No action will be taken until papers are received. I understand the situation perfectly."

By reason of the fact that Governor Wells has directed the written protests and the sworn statements of the Uintah county people relative to the manner in which the consent of the Indians was obtained be sent direct to Utah's representatives in Washington, the governor does not expect to receive the documents which State Senator Benson, Representative Billings and Postmaster Collett indicated in their telegram would be sent. The governor's suggestion to have them forwarded direct to Washington was made for the purpose of saving delay at what was believed to be a critical time.

MR. BEARDSLEY RESIGNS.

New Manager Installed at Beardsley's Tavern.

Willis T. Beardsley yesterday resigned his position as president and manager of Beardsley's Tavern, and left for San Francisco on last night's train. Mr. Beardsley will engage in business in San Francisco, where he will shortly be joined by his wife. A meeting of the directors of the Beardsley's Tavern company was held last evening, at which Mr. Beardsley's resignation was accepted and J. S. Critchlow was elected as president. H. G. Sheridan was selected as secretary and manager of the company. Mr. Sheridan has acted as Mr. Beardsley's assistant ever since the tavern has opened, and is thoroughly competent to fill the position.

REMOVED TO THE PEN.

Precaution Taken to Prevent Violence to Parry.

Fearing that an attempt might be made to deal summary justice to the self-confessed ravisher, George Parry, Sheriff Naylor has had his prisoner removed from the county jail to the penitentiary. The removal took place late Thursday evening, while the report was abroad that the little girl might die, and it was known only to the sheriff and the two deputies who escorted Parry to the state prison. While public sentiment is still strong against Parry, the sheriff no longer looks for any mob violence.

CALL UPON JONES.

Myton and His Indians Ask Permission to Lease.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Indian Agent Myton of the Uintah Utah reservation at White Rocks, Utah, with five head men among the Utes, Big Joe, Tim Johnson, Martin Van, Verney Mack and

GIVES DEFENSE OF MRS. BONINE

What Is Expected to Be Shown by Her Counsel.

WILL TRY TO PROVE STRUGGLE

CLAIM THAT YOUNG AYRES HAD BEEN INTOXICATED.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The government today closed its case in the trial of Mrs. Lola Ida Bonine for the killing of James Seymour Ayres, Jr., and Attorney Keene, of counsel for the defense, made a preliminary statement in behalf of Mrs. Bonine. It was evident from Keene's statement that effort will be made to show the lack of motive for the crime on the part of Mrs. Bonine and to support her plea that Ayres was killed in a struggle for due consideration of the presumption of innocence. This, said, was not the purpose of the defense to minimize the offense of which his client was charged, for it was undeniable that the tragedy had fallen heavily upon two families.

Many guests of the Keene were to be introduced, said Mr. Keene, and he believed it would be shown that the character of the people living there was good. Mr. Keene called attention to the fact that Mrs. Bonine was chosen as a leader in the social festivities of the hotel and this choice, he said, fell upon her because of her capacity. The defense would show that she had taught several young men to dance.

Ayres Was Intoxicated.

In December a dance of more than ordinary importance had been given and young Ayres had appeared there so much intoxicated that he was obliged to leave the dance. Mrs. Bonine had been compelled to ask a friend of the young man to get him to retire. This incident had, he said, led to some discord.

Continuing, Mr. Keene said it would be shown that in getting up the dances, Mrs. Bonine had visited the rooms of all persons, regardless of sex or age, who could dance, to get them to participate in the dances. Mrs. Bonine was fond of medicine and that this fondness had served her in ministering to the sick and she did visit many of them.

Another point which would be developed was that the relation between Ayres and Mrs. Bonine was not such as to cause them to feel unwilling to break them.

Reproached Him For Drinking.

Proof would also be given that on March 4 Mrs. Bonine had reproved Ayres for drinking, and meanwhile some coldness resulted, but it would be shown that on Monday before the killing she ate ice cream with Ayres. It would also be shown, he said, that on the evening before the tragedy Mrs. Bonine's demeanor was not that of a person who bore a grudge against Ayres.

There would also be testimony, he said, that would show that the window shade in Ayres room had been run up with a bloody hand and that the hand was that of Mrs. Bonine. Evidence also would be introduced to show that in December last Ayres showed his pistol to a man. It also would be shown that in the following February the young man loaned a pistol to a friend and that even at later dates the pistol was seen in the room.

He referred to the four or five statements made by Mrs. Bonine and said there was no inconsistency about them. His client did not desire to modify or change them, but would stand by them.

HOW HE BRIBED JURIES.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Former Bailiff James Lynch, the confessed jury briber who, with Alex. Sullivan, an attorney, who stood in Judge Smith's court today and immediately launched into a story of juries which he said he had bribed in behalf of Sullivan.

"Sullivan told me," said Lynch, "whenever possible to get hold of an Irish Catholic on the jury and to tell him that the plaintiff was an A. P. A. and that Sullivan and others conspired to keep Lynch out of the jurisdiction of the Cook county courts following exposure of the bailiff."

Paris, Tex., Nov. 30.—A motion for a new trial was overruled in the case of Solomon Hotema, the witch killer, and sentence was passed on him to be executed on the 14th of February. An appeal will be taken.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

An entertainment will be given in the Eleventh ward assembly hall Friday evening next for a Christmas box for the missionaries now in the field. The programme is an attractive one, consisting of songs, instrumental selections and recitations. Bishop Morris will deliver an address during the evening.

A farewell social will be tendered Elders William G. Keyser and Edward Chamberlain next Tuesday evening at the Eleventh ward meeting house in honor of their departure for the northern states missionary field. A good musical programme has been arranged.

Following are the candidates for queen of the Fourth ward carnival and fair, which is to take place Dec. 19 to 22:

Miss Ivy Price, Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Misses Jane Pickett, Belle Weller, Florence Lewis, Lillie Jordan, Lillie Cogswell, Mary Hill, Annie Fonger and Mrs. J. C. Lynch.

The regular annual Thanksgiving song service will be held this evening in the Seventeenth ward meeting house under the auspices of the S. L. A. A rich programme of music has been prepared, and no doubt the attendance will be large.

The Salt Lake Glee club, under the direction of Evan Arthur, will render three numbers, and Miss Edna Dwyer, Willard Perkins, Miss Arvilla Clark and Mrs. Gwendolyn Lewis-Little will take part in the programme. There will also be several songs by the choir and congregation. The Thanksgiving address will be delivered by Mat Thomas.

WANT BETTER WATER SUPPLY

Insurance Companies Threaten to Advance Rates.

SURVEYOR MAKES REPORT

NEEDS OF FIRE DEPARTMENT AND WATER SYSTEM.

The local fire insurance men are preparing to take an action in the matter of protection to property in the business district of this city that will give rise to much discussion. They will, in brief, demand of the city authorities that the water supply in the business district be greatly increased and the fire-fighting apparatus of the city greatly improved. If this is not done they may increase the fire insurance rates on all business property. H. E. Parkhurst, surveyor-in-charge of the local branch of the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, has just prepared an elaborate report on the subject. This report will be submitted early in the week to a meeting of the leading local insurance men, and the understanding is that it will be submitted by them to Mayor Thompson.

Mr. Parkhurst's report goes into all the details of the local situation, describing at length the water system of the city and the equipment of the fire department. Attention is called to the fact that while the average annual fire losses of the city from 1897 to 1899 was $83,827, the estimated loss to date this year is $314,000. The average number of fires for the years given above was 138, while this year there have been 143 already.

Speaking of the water system of the city and calling attention to the tremendous waste, the report goes on to say that the present storage capacity is but 5,000,000 gallons. This, it is argued, should be increased to 60,000,000 gallons, or five days' supply. The capacity of the city's water system should be greatly enlarged and supplied with larger feed and discharge mains. The brick storage at the head of City Creek canyon should at once be enlarged to the fullest capacity that the present site will permit. Storage reservoirs should be built in Parley's canyon.

It is also recommended that the city insist on the discontinuance of the great waste of water in irrigation street sprinkling and sewer flushing. If a sufficient supply of water cannot be held in reserve for fire purposes, then a separate supply should be asked for to be supplied from cisterns in the business district. Because of the large size of the business blocks and the fact that most fires have to be fought from the street, six-inch mains are recommended with standard hydrants at intervals, housed in and having not less than 350 feet of hose attached ready for use. It is held that there is greater danger of a block fire here than in any other western city, because of the great number of compact buildings.

Fire Department Needs.

Speaking of the needs of the fire department, the report says that the service engine is too small, and the reserve engine too old to be relied upon. Both should be replaced by a first-class engine. New boilers and extensive repairs would make good reserve engines out of the old ones. There should be another horse hose wagon in the dwelling district, with men for the same. The fire alarm should connect with a large fire bell or whistle, to shut off the use of water for irrigation and sprinkling while a fire is in progress.

There should be more men in the fire department. A competent electrician should be appointed by the city to pass upon all electric wiring. The report closes with this significant query:

"If conditions are found by experience and investigation to be abnormal, why should not the rates be increased, if the city is unable or unwilling to rectify them?"

JUDGE MEMORIAL HOME.

Nothing Will be Done Until After the Holidays.

Conferences and deliberations concerning the preliminary plans for the Judge Memorial Home are to be deferred until after the holiday season, because of the approaching departure of Mrs. Mary Judge and her daughter, Catherine, for California to remain until after Christmas.

Bishop Scanlon, Father Kieley and Mrs. Judge have had several preliminary talks with reference to the latter's magnificent gift, but it will be some time before anything definite will be decided upon. It is believed that they will delay a definite understanding, but will have no effect on the actual work, as it has been decided that nothing can be done towards erecting the home before spring opens.

Case of Cruelty.

A flagrant case of animal cruelty was reported to the sheriff's office yesterday. Early in the day word was telegraphed from Sugar ward that a yellow horse attached to a buggy was tied in front of the Pacific Lumber company's yards and that the poor beast had been there all night. Deputy Sheriff Sloan went down to bring the horse and buggy to town to the humane society, and it was found that the horse had been driven so hard that it was impossible to get it to travel faster than a walk. However, shortly before the horse was taken charge by the humane society, Mr. Sloan had given it a feed. Deputy Sloan placed the horse in the keeping of the Eclipse stables, in the direction of the humane society. In the opinion of the officers the animal is stolen property and had been driven a long distance in a short time to the place where it was found tied. The owner of the outfit has not yet been heard from.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Having made arrangements to engage in business in California, I have disposed of my controlling interest in Beardsley's Tavern to Mr. John S. Critchlow, who has been appointed as president and manager. The names of the gentlemen who were formerly stockholders and who are now as managers, are a sufficient assurance that the Tavern will be in the future, as it has been in the past, "Salt Lake's Best Restaurant."
